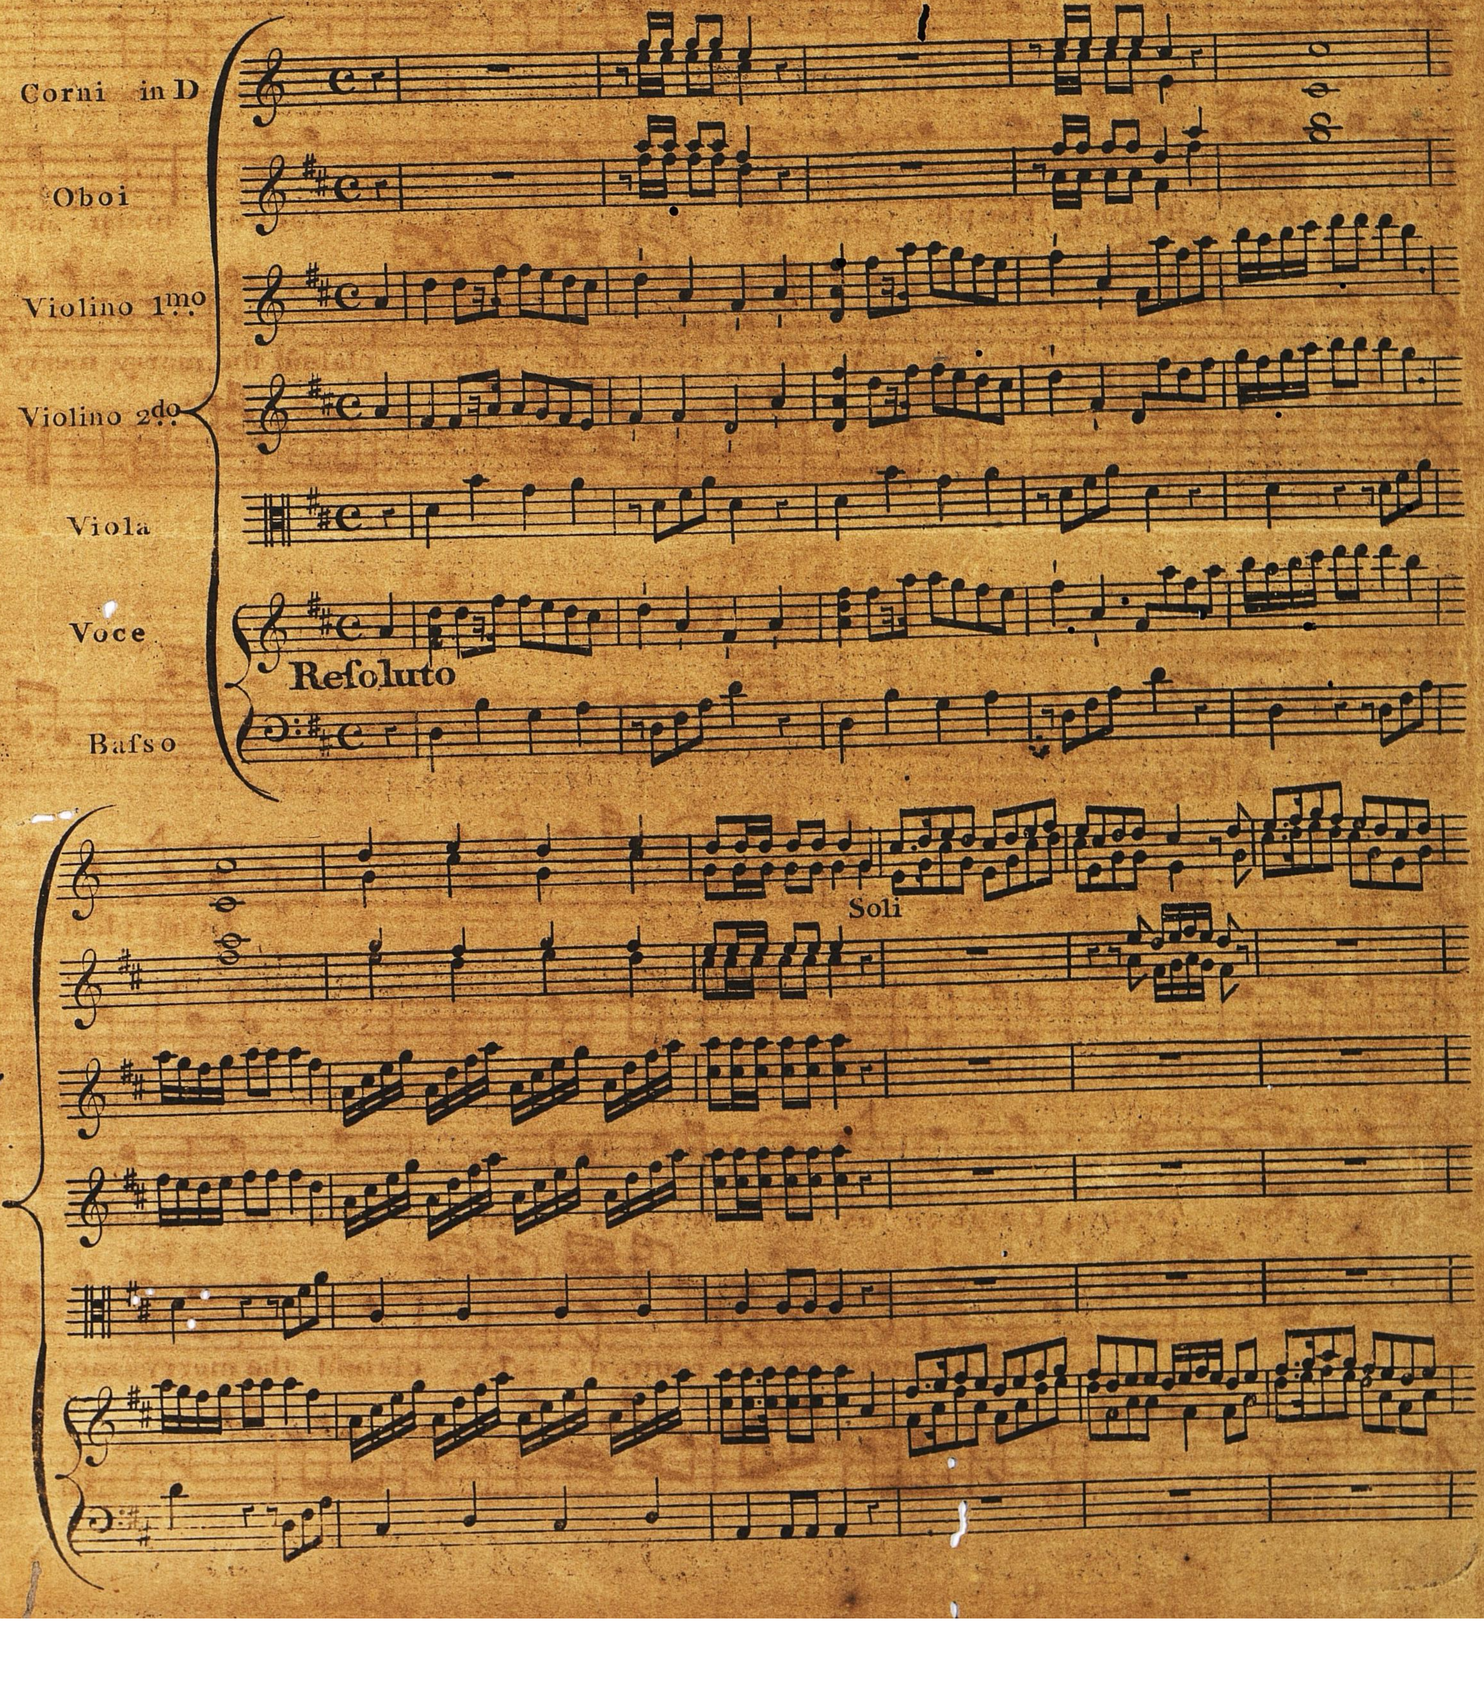
NO SPORT TO THE CHACE CAN COMPARE

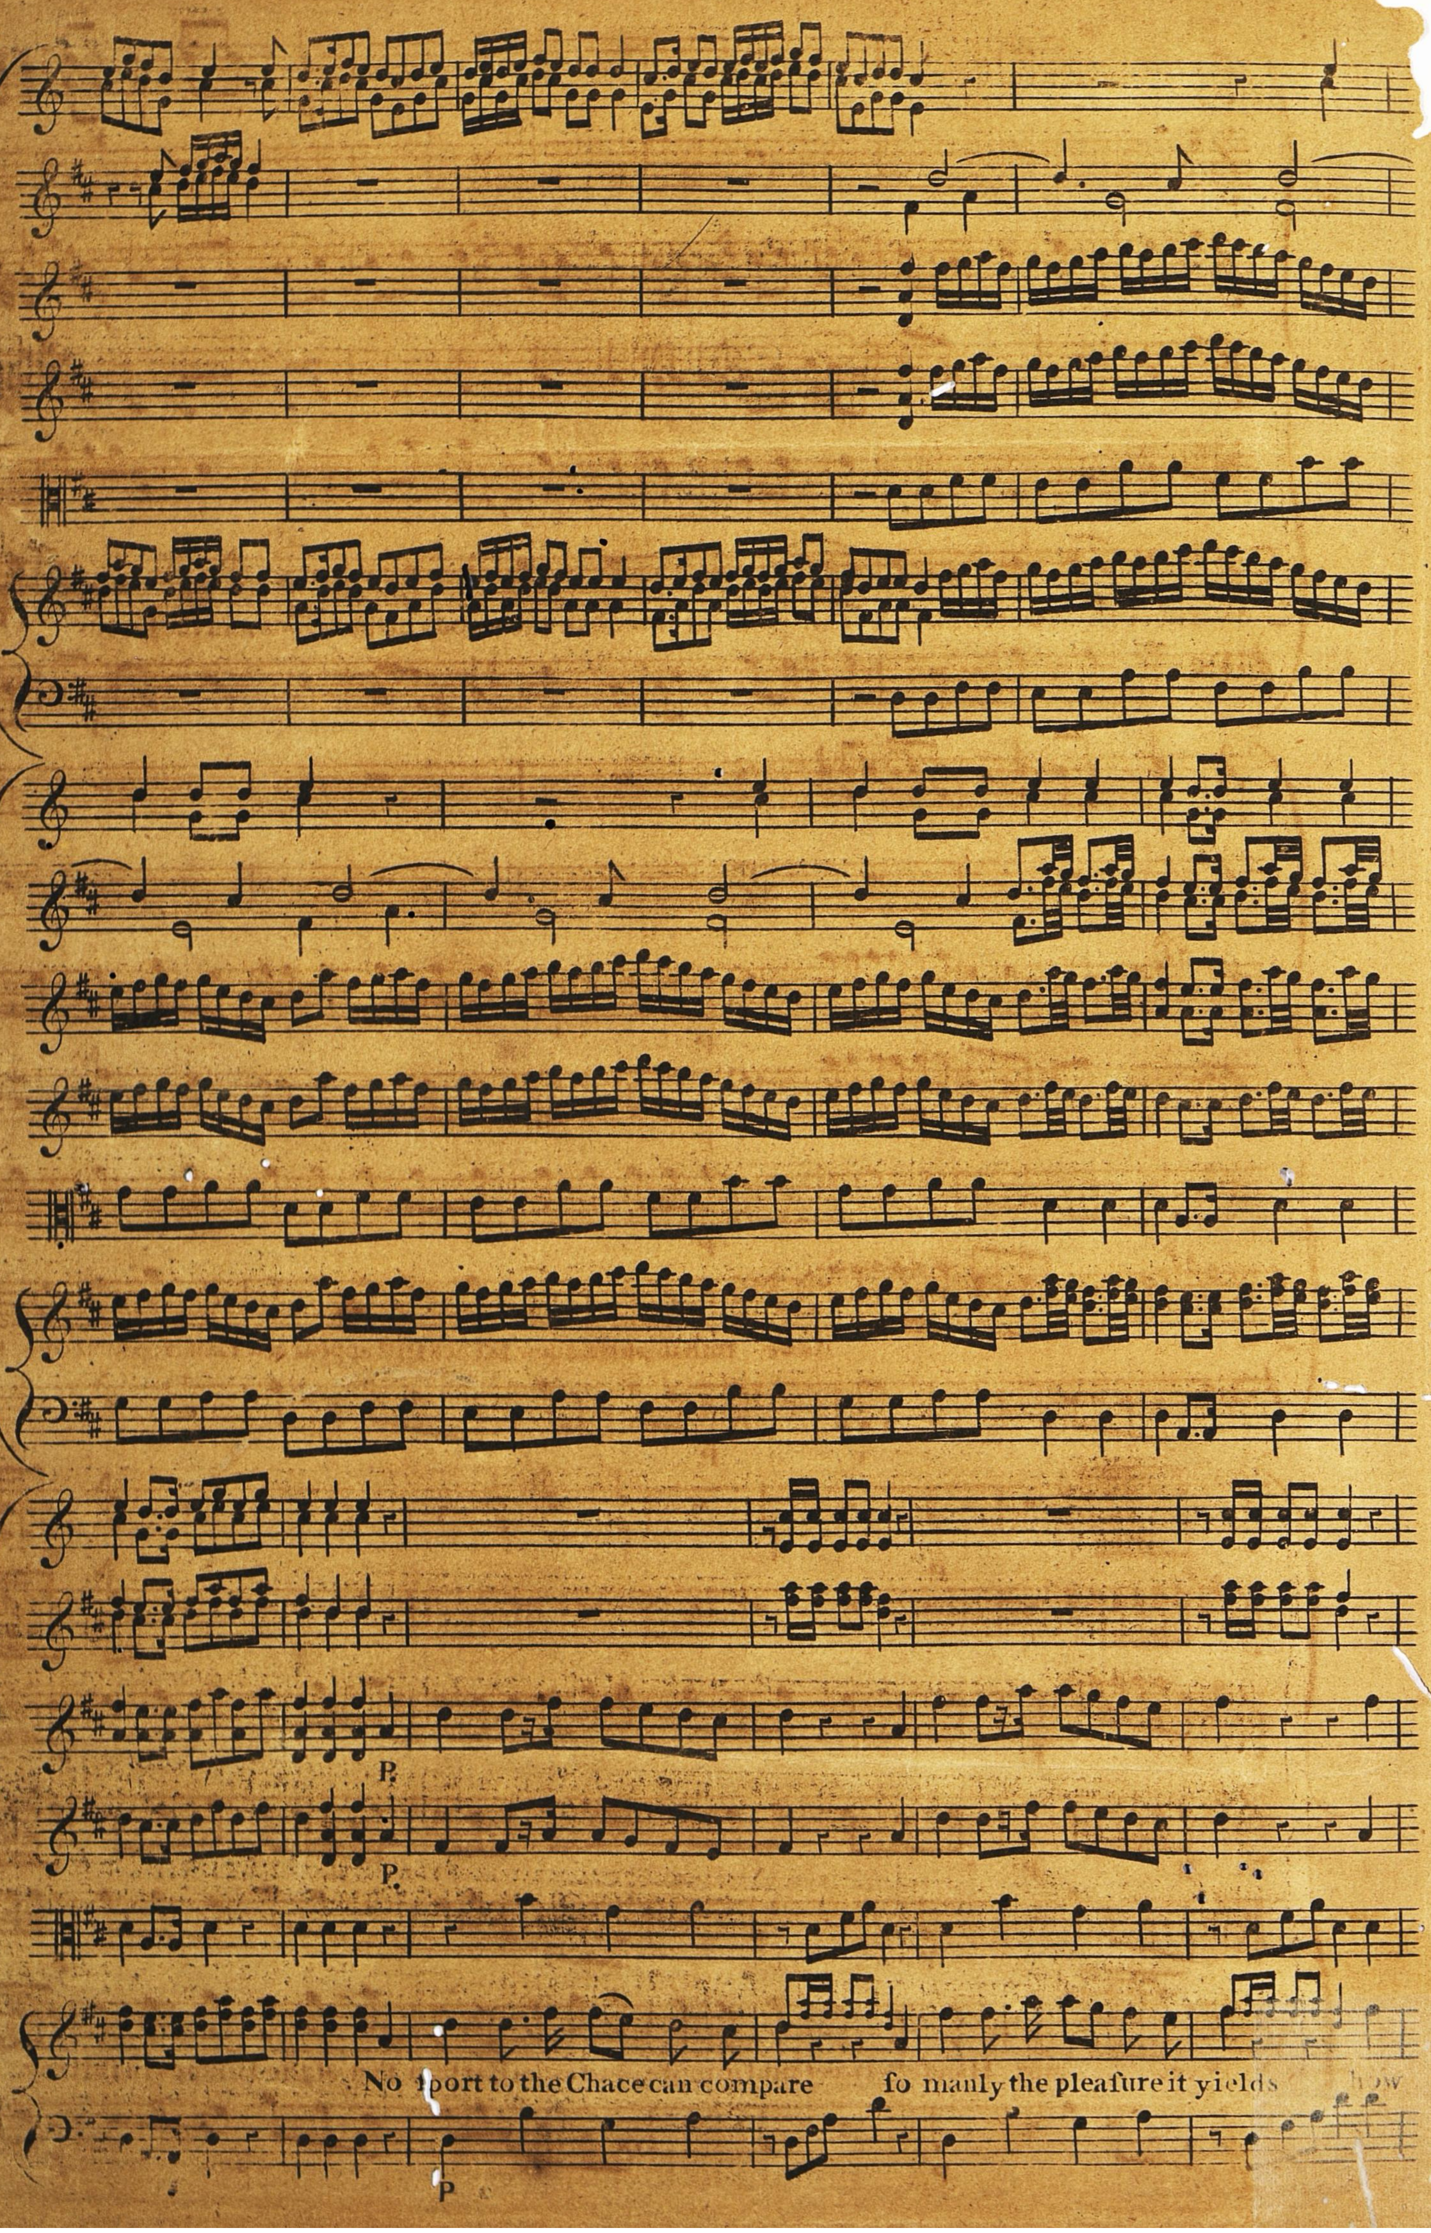
A favorite Hunting Song, Compos'd by

Dr. ARNOLD

Price 1s

LONDON, Printed by LONGMAN and BRODERIP No. 26 Cheapside.
Music Sellers to the ROYAL FAMILY
Where may be had just Published "Blest with thee my Soul's dear Treasure - - - 1s





No ſport to the Chace can compare ſo manly the pleaſure it yields how ſweet how ſweet how refreſhing the Air in hal'd in the woods in the woods and the Fields

As we ruſh in purſuit new ſcenes ſtill appear new Landſcapes encoun_ter the Soli
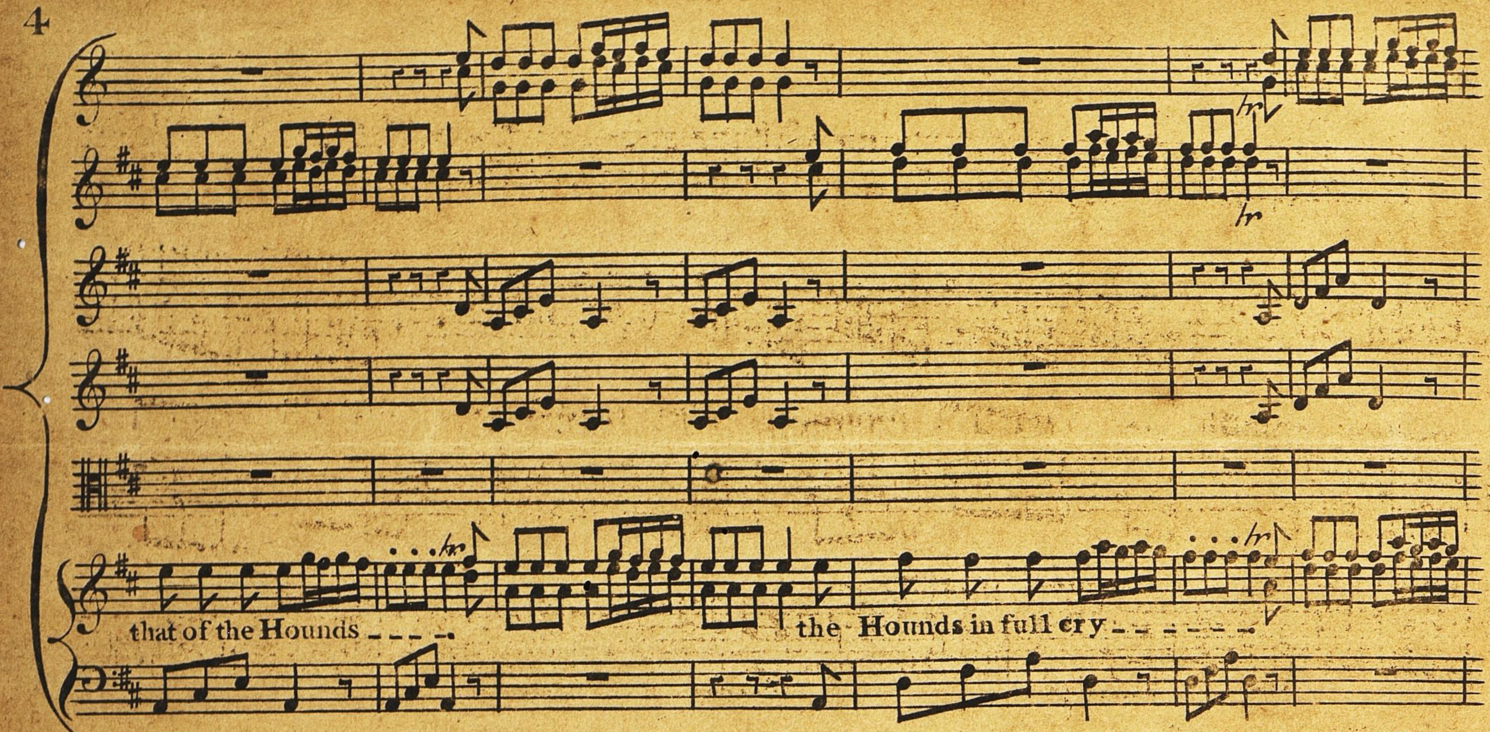
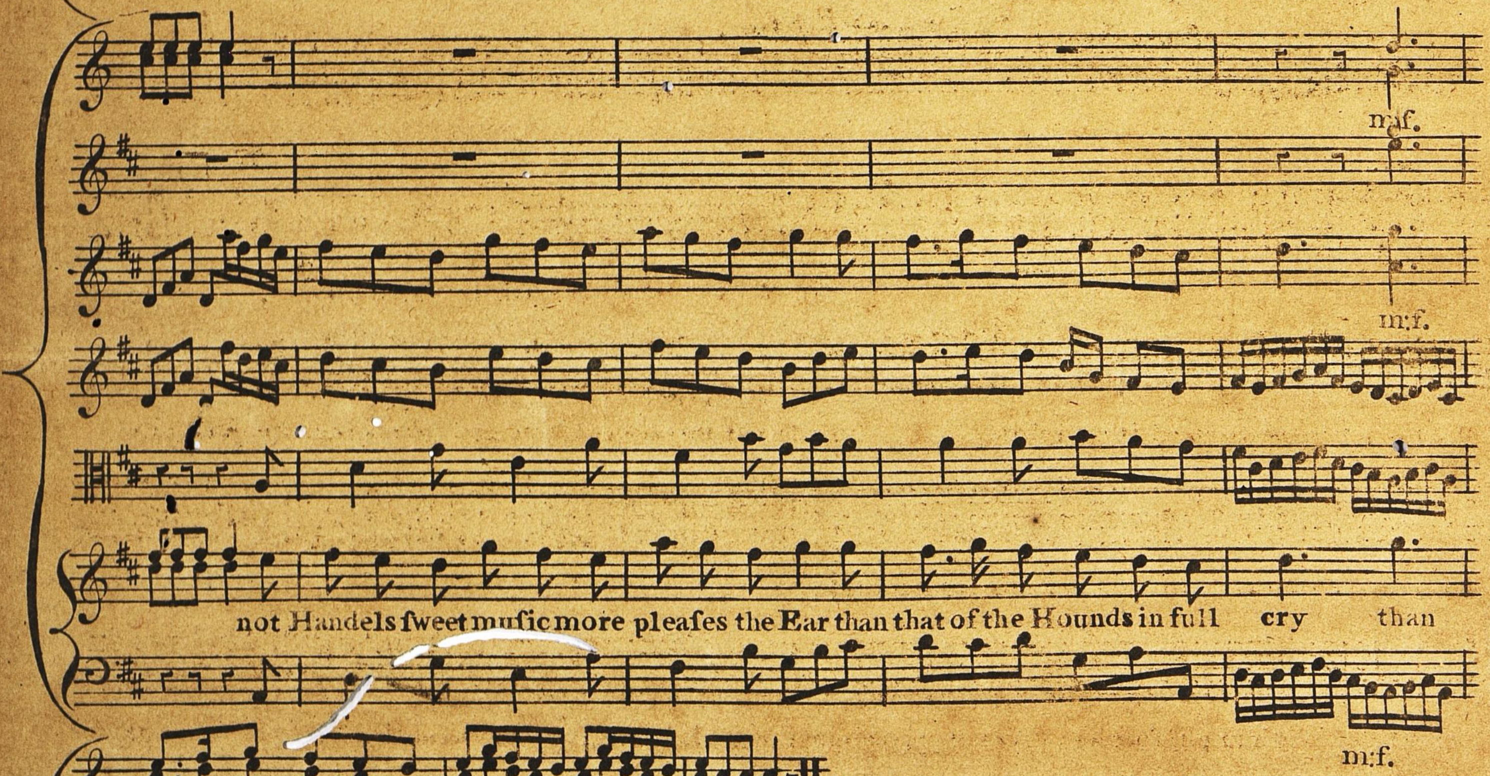
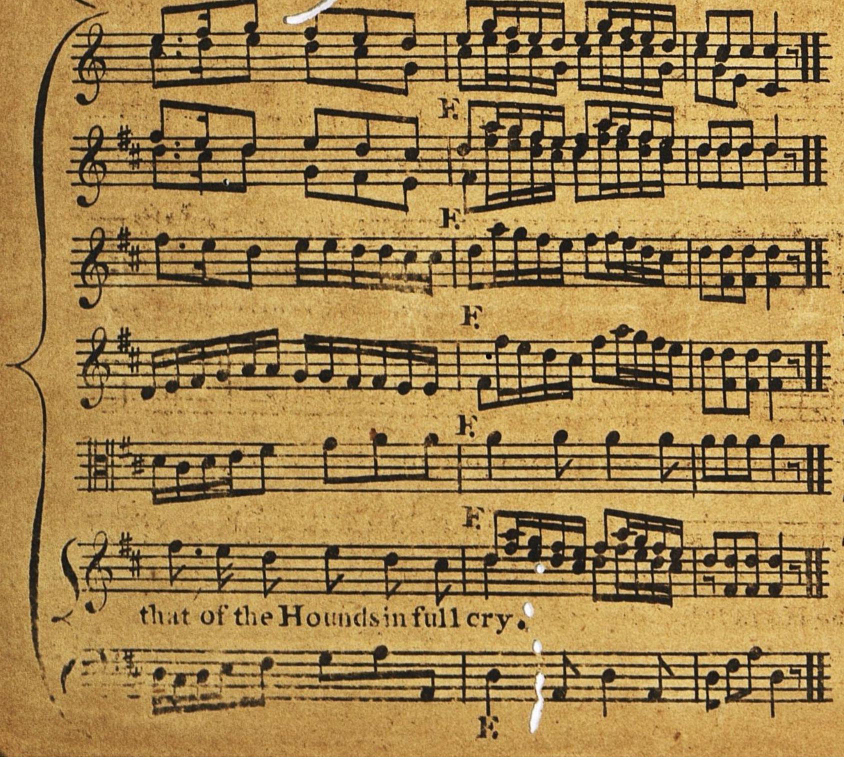
Eye. not Handels ſweet muſic more pleaſes the Ear than that of the Hounds in full cry, than







2

New ftrength from the Chace we derive,
It's Exercife purges the Blood;
How happy that Mortal muft live,
Whofe fport yields both Phyfic and Food;
So new and fo varied, its Charms they ne'er Cloy,
Like thofe of the Bottle and Face;
The oftner, the Harder, the more we enjoy,
The more we're in love with the Chace.